

Reservation For foreigners

All transactions will be spoken and written in the Japanese language. If you can't speak and read the language, car rental reservations can only be accepted if accompanied by a Japanese speaking translator or traveling companion. Reservations made without knowledge of the Japanese language or without the assistance of a translator will not be approved at our check in counters.